

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP

TOWARDS A SEA REFUGE FOR DOLPHINS

AN ENCLOSED SEA AREA IN ITALIAN WATERS TO ACCOMMODATE

AND REHABILITATE STRANDED AND CAPTIVE DOLPHINS

FRIDAY 13th MAY 2016 | 10.00 AM - 4.00 PM

THE WORKSHOP WILL TAKE PLACE AT THE CONFERENCE HALL OF ENEA,
THE NATIONAL AGENCY FOR NEW TECHNOLOGIES, ENERGY AND SUSTAINABLE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT - PREMISES

ROME ITALY

ADDRESS: VIA GIULIO ROMANO 41, ROMA, ITALY (CORNER ENEA MAIN ENTRANCE LUNGOTEVERE THAON DI REVEL 76 - 00196 ROMA)

IN COLLABORATION WITH 1986 2016 UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF

PROGRAM

9.45 AM

Registration and Welcome Coffee.
Moderator: Lavinia Gerardis | journalist, Adnkronos - Prometeo

10.15 AM

Opening address from
ENEA | the National Agency for New Technologies, Energy and Sustainable Economic Development
Dr. Roberto Morabito | Head, Sustainability Department

The NGO commitment to establish a Sea Refuge for dolphins in Italy.
Rosalba Giugni | President Marevivo and Roberto Bennati | Vice-President LAV

Why a dolphin sea refuge in Italy is essential:
Discussion Paper on Main Criteria
Dr. Giuseppe Notarbartolo di Sciara | President, Tethys Research Institute

Rescue and rehabilitation of marine mammals in California.
The need for marine rescue sanctuaries. Video discussion.
Dr. Frances Gulland | Senior Scientist, Marine Mammal Center, Sausalito California, US

Veterinary Considerations for the Construction and Operation of Sea Pen Sanctuaries for Captive Cetaceans.
Dr. Heather Rally | Wildlife Veterinarian with wide experience in marine mammal centers in the U.S.

Live strandings in the Mediterranean Sea:
current management practices and the need for a dolphin refuge.
Dr. Sandro Mazzariol | Veterinarian and researcher specialised in cetaceans, University of Padoa (Italy)

Life in the wild versus dolphinarium. Towards a Dolphin Refuge at sea.
Dr. Joan Gonzalvo | Tethys Research Institute

11.45 AM

Discussion with the participants.

12.00 PM

Networking Break.

12.15 PM

The EU laws and current developments on dolphinarium, dolphin's import and strandings.
Marco Affronte | Member of the European Parliament and Marine Biologist

Sea refuges: an international perspective.
Vanessa Tossenberger | Policy Director and Cetacean specialist, Whale and Dolphin Conservation (WDC)

Considerations on animal sanctuaries' potential role in promoting eco-economic development.
Gaia Angelini | Campaigner Wild Animal Area, LAV

1.20 PM

Conclusions and final remarks.
Dr. Giuseppe Notarbartolo di Sciara | President, Tethys Research Institute

1.40 PM

Transfer to Marevivo boat on Tevere River by bus (10 minute drive) for a light lunch and afternoon session.

1.50 PM

Vegan light lunch on Marevivo Boat, Tevere River (Lungotevere Arnaldo da Brescia, Scalo del Pinedo).

2.45 PM

During lunch, two experts are invited:

Daniel Turner / Programme Manager - Born Free Foundation

will share his organisation's experience of successfully rehabilitating and releasing two captive dolphins in the Mediterranean Sea.

Attorney Carla Campanaro / Chief LAV Legal Office

will present the case for a refuge for dolphins in case of seizure and confiscation ordered by the public authority on ground of mistreatment.

A meeting room will be available to participants for further discussions .

4.00 PM

End.

Simultaneous interpretation English-Italian-English available.

During the afternoon a shuttle bus will be available twice to take participants to the Termini Central Rail Station.

No fee applies to attendance.

FOR REGISTRATION AND FURTHER INFORMATION

Gaia Angelini / LAV - g.angelini@lav.it
t +39 320.70.81.009

Laura Gentile / Marevivo - laura.gentile@marevivo.it
t +39 339.23.93.543

PHOTO: JOAN GONZALVO, THETHYS RESEARCH INSTITUTE

